

BOIS CAPITAL

For Immediate Release

Dominick Gaitan and Matthew Park Joins Bois Capital

New York, September, 2013 — Bois Capital, a leading independent investment bank, announced today the hiring of Dominick Gaitan and Matthew Park, adding to its technology corporate finance team.

Prior to Bois Capital, Dominick worked as an account executive for Ricoh America's corporation implementing hardware and software solutions for business enterprises. He has spent the past year assisting private investment firms with deal flow and business analysis.

Dominick is based in Newport Beach, California.

Prior to Bois Capital, Matthew worked at McKinsey & Company where he helped a CEO of a leading Korean financial service company to introduce new sales incentive plan, providing investment return and adjusted capital structure. At AT Kearney, he led task force consisting of five members from two consulting firms and client company to conduct strategic valuation for potential M&A Target Company with market cap of $600 million.

Matthew is based in New York City.

About Bois Capital

Bois Capital is a leading independent investment bank focused on providing financial advice on significant mergers, acquisitions, spinoffs, and financings for public and private companies, launched today in New York and California. The team has extensive international corporate finance experience and global, senior level connections in the technology sector, including cloud, software, IT services, digital media, wireless, wireline, big data, analytics and healthcare.

The team has held senior positions at Barclays Capital, White & Case, Softbank, Bank of America, Ericsson, Qualcomm, Alcatel-Lucent, Bell Labs and Radvision. The firm provides technology sector specialization, international senior level connections and a Managing Partner leading each transaction on a day-to-day basis. Bois Capital acts for its clients located throughout the world from its offices in New York City and Newport Beach.

###